PERFORMANCE:

Every term all students have the opportunity to take part in a showcase to family and friends. This is an important part of The Biz as it gives the chance for every student to shine and build up confidence. The showcase forms part of the term so therefore there is no charge for tickets although a charity collection may sometimes be made.

AGENCY:

We have our own casting agency Biz Management. Further details can be found on our website. Many Biz students have been featured on TV, Film and Theatre. Pupils have appeared on BBC TV's Blue Peter, Copycats, The Mysti Show, Vroom Vroom and Xchange. Biz students have recently appeared in the West End productions of An Inspector Calls, Les Miserables and The Lion King as well as with Opera and Ballet International in Carmen and Tosca and also a concert at The O2!. If you would like your child to be put forward for professional castings and auditions please contact the Principal Erika Vincent, and all the information will be passed on to you. Please note that each student will be assessed on their suitability to join the agency.
